Gregor calendar award 2020

The competitions 2020

The objective of the Calendar Competition is to display a representative cross-section of calendar craft from around the world and to stimulate reflection about the significance of calendars in our time. The organizers concern themselves with cultural and economic aspects of calendars and they seek to present the manifold dimensions of this medium to professionals and to the interested public.

The awards and the ceremony

In January 2020, a jury of experts evaluates the overall appearance of calendars submitted from Germany and abroad in the categories based on the criteria of concept, design and manufacturing technique. The jury selects calendars for Gold, Silver and Bronze awards. After a meticulous review, one of the calendars that have been given the Gold Award can be honoured with the Grand Prize of the Jury 2020. In addition to the evaluation of the overall impression of each calendar, special awards can be given for outstanding performances.

It is with great anticipation that the professional audience looks forward every year to the announcement of the calendars that have been awarded the "Photo Calendar Prize". All photographic calendars are automatically included in the Photo Calendar Award 2020. An independent jury of experts evaluates the calendars with emphasis on innovative application of photographic technique. In addition, one of the winning calendars can be distinguished even further with the "Prize of the Photo Calendar Jury 2020" for the most remarkable overall performance.

For Gregor Self-Publishing Calendars Award a jury made up of experts, trade buyers and consumers judge the calendars. In January, the juries will determine Awards of the Gregor Self-Publishing Calendars Award 2020 from all submissions.

The certificates/awards will be presented at the opening ceremony in the "House of Economy" on Thursday 23, January 2020. When the jury has completed its evaluation, the award winners will be notified of their success during the third week of 2020. All entrants are cordially invited to attend the opening of the exhibition with the award ceremony.

All calendars awarded at the 2020 Gregor Calendar Award in January automatically take part in the Japan Calendar Award, without extra costs.

Like Germany, Japan is a "classic calendar country". A Japanese calendar competition (with exhibitions in Tokyo and Osaka) is staged every year at the same time as the Gregor international calendar award in Stuttgart, Germany. The exchange of calendars between Germany and Japan is cultivated by the Graphischer Klub Stuttgart e. V. in cooperation with the organizers of the Calendar Fair of the Japan Federation of Printing Industries. In February 2020, a jury of experts evaluates the overall appearance of the calendars. The jury selects calendars for Gold, Silver and Bronze awards. In addition to the evaluation of the overall impression of each calendar, special awards can be given for outstanding performances. The certificate / awards will be sent to the winners in April.

Great exposure for your calendars

Visitors will admire your calendars. The calendars will be displayed in several exhibitions. All calendars that were entered in all categories will be displayed in a grand exhibition at the "House of Economy" of Baden-Württemberg in Stuttgart from January 24 to the February 09, 2020. In addition, the entire calendar exhibition will travel to the Government Building at the Rondellplatz in Karlsruhe, Germany, where it will be open from February 18 to March 08, 2020.

Finally a few more important points

- ▶ Please consider that the calendars will be exposed by the visitors. When a calendar is awarded a prize, it may become necessary for the organizers to request additional copies of that calendar. All participants in the competition are therefore asked to retain at least two extra copies of their calendars for exhibitions.
- ▶ All calendars that were submitted before the deadline and to the correct address will be evaluated and judged by four different juries. The decisions of the juries are final and cannot be contested in any legal action. By submitting a calendar to the Gregor Calendar Award, participants assure that the rights of third parties, in particular those of authors or copyright owners, will not be violated. Participants exempt the organizers from any claims for damages and other legal aspirations of third parties. The organizers are entitled to exhibit and / or publicize the calendars, or excerpts from them, free of any charges, in other media.
- ▶ Social and educational institutions may submit a written request for reduced fees that must be received well in advance of the deadline. The decision whether or not to approve such requests is the prerogative of the Graphischer Klub Stuttgart e. V., Königstraße 57, 71679 Asperg/Germany.
